Library News

Congratulations to Renae Clement who was awarded September Employee of the Month.

In case you didn’t know (is it possible?!), Renae works in the Women and Newborn Health Library and was recognised for her support of patients providing resources, information and a friendly ear.

Call in to the Women and Newborn Health Library to see the full range of resources available to everyone in WA and have a chat with Renae.

New Look PubMed

A new look PubMed is coming in January 2020

The new PubMed is a mobile-first, responsive website with a consistent look and feel on your computer, tablet or phone.

Other features include:

- Search results displayed using the Best Match relevance sort option
- Highlighted text fragments showing relevance to your search terms
- Cite button for quick export to your reference manager in preferred format
- Graphic display of results by year
Try the new site before the official release date on PubMed Labs
